WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

90 2014 Marimar Estate La Masia Chardonnay Russian River Valley, Don Miguel Vineyard

From the proprietor's 30 acres of the variety, planted to three clones ideally suited for the coolness of the site this is a relatively light-bodied wine. However, it presents a richness and concentration of pineapple and green olives, the oak provding a baked, creamy sensation.

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE TO CALIFORNIA WINE

90 2014 Marimar Estate La Masia Chardonnay Russian River Valley, Don Miguel Vineyard

Marimar's latest La Masia is wonderfully fragrant and intensely fruity Chardonnay whose ongoing themes of sweet, well-ripened apples are accented by suggestions of candied lemons and a careful touch of complementary, mildly vanillan oak. It is fully and nicely rounded in texture with a welcome turn of acidity coming on at the finish. A complete and satisfying wine

92 2014 Marimar Estate Albariño, Russian River Valley, Don Miguel Vineyard. $32

This is a succulently juicy, light wine that is refreshing from start to finish. A wealth of jasmine, crisp apple and white peach combine effortlessly on the palate. With a kick of creaminess and power on the finish, it's the ideal wine for tapas and appetizers of all flavors.

91 2012 Marimar Estate "Cristina" Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley, Don Miguel Vineyard.

Fresh aromas of blueberry and black cherry give this focus. While firmly tannic, everything stays in place through the long finish. Ends with crushed rock minerality. Drink now.
